Ends:

Teacher Representative – Megan MacFarland

- Great way to involved with different committees, get a pulse on the school
- Reading buddies are filtered throughout the school as a way to build teamwork and comraderie
- Fly Like an Eagle Week is anti-bullying week, meetings are the second Tuesday of the month, if anyone would like to join

Student Council Update

CCA Board Representative – Tom Malott

- Beginning of the month was breakfast with the CCA Staff, met the new people, renewed connections with people returning.
- Dr Schultz and Tom attended CCSD security meeting
  - Want to make sure that the charter schools have the same protocols as the district schools do
  - CCA is where they need to be with the rest of the schools
- Changing some of the non-negotiables
  - Updating the wording to keep it current, will be lots of communication so be on the lookout.
  - Will be a process, feel free to give feedback

SAC Report- Bill Baumgartner

- SAC is responsible for administering the two major surveys sent through the school
  - School climate and teacher feedback surveys, both sent in January
- Meets once a month, the first Tuesday of the month at 8am in the small conference room of the office, anyone is able to attend

CCA Foundation- Cyndy Holmes

- 501(c)3 entity that raises money for the school
  - Focuses on raising larger sums of money to be used for the school (facility, education, resources, etc)
- One major event every year, the Fun Run in May

Administration Report –Annemarie Mahan and Travis Hargreaves /Chelsea Anderson

Travis

- Congratulations on getting through the first week
- Adjusted some of the times for pickup on the back lot, working on getting things moving quickly
- Thank you for great events so far
  - Back to school nights, Pastries With Parents, New Family Breakfast
- Met with the teachers over the summer to see where CCA does things well, and what do we need to improve on.
  - Focusing on the behavior of the kids, what does it mean to be safe, respectful, and responsible
  - The kids can focus on those three things outside of CCA and within the school.
- Started a new reading curriculum, have been working on what's new with teachers
  - Working to foster the love of reading within the classroom
- Ms Yamaguchi has been pushing into the classroom to teach something called Second Step, a program that helps kids with dealing with bullies, and how to express themselves
- CCA Carnival is August 23rd
- Just a reminder, please make sure everyone is washing hands and keeping clean
- Travis and Annemarie are both co-assistant VPs for K-8, helps to support students as they go through the school and support the teachers with their strengths.

Chelsea

- The Eagle has moved to being sent Monday at 12:30

- Event updates are in The Eagle, as well as the master Red White and Blue Calendar
- Will be sending teacher newsletter emails with one link that has all the newsletters to reduce the abundance of emails
- Teacher webpages have been updated, be sure to check them out
- PowerSchool is available as of today (8/16/19)
  - A lot of the communication for CCA is going through the contact information in the PowerSchool section, please make sure that it's updated and correct.
- Volunteer Opportunities
  - Chelsea is happy to help people set up their volunteer account
  - CCA needs Crosswalk volunteers, and those are DOUBLE HOURS and the signup is in The Eagle
  - CCA needs Yearbook volunteers to help take photos, get hours for taking photos at events you're already attending
    - The yearbook is 15% off through September 15th if you order early, signup link is in the Eagle

President & Vice-President Report – Rebecca Rook/Julia Park

- If you would like to get involved, let us know your niche for volunteering and we will help get you involved
- Thank you Chelsea for your help getting PTO organized and transitioned
- Thank you to the fundraising team, Sara Castro for new family playdates and Pastries with Parents, new family breakfast
